

Me and Carol

Lyrics&music Pernilla Dahlstrand

Feeling lost and lonely, suddenly I sway.
I'm moving on with everything when life gets in my way.
A lot of reminiscence, they are memories from my past.
It is when I hear you, every inch of me recalls.

Time and time again I see me through your eyes.
Watching years that's passing by.
Time and time again my dream will come alive,
and I wonder is it now?

Looking from a distance, stuck in time and place.
Then again I see myself and all those lovely days.
Leaning on the future I've got dreams I take along.
I can hear you everywhere and the colours of your song.

Time and time again I see me through your eyes.
Watching years that's passing by.
Time and time again my dream will come alive,
and I wonder is it now?

Time and time again I see me through your eyes.
Watching years that's passing by.
Time and time again my dream will come alive
And I wonder is it now?
